Hixburg

There was no Sunday School at Walker's Presbyterian Church on Sunday for two Sundays, December 10 and 17, on account of bad weather, and so much flu.

Mr. Joe Goin's family has been in with a virus this week.

Mr. Lee Glenn was sick in bed three days this week.

On Saturday, Miss Maggie Hix fell and hurt her back and hip.

Many parties have been given for the bride-elect, Miss Anne Martin. Mrs. Edwin Fore honored her with a shower. Mrs. E. A Covington gave a shower, and Mrs Patrick Lair had a bridal luncheon on Thursday.

Miss Martin's marriage to Mr. Richard Robinson will take place at the Farmville Methodist Church on December 29, at eight o'clock in the evening.

There was an accident at Mr. Carl Martin's on Thursday evening. His oil stove blew up, and according to Mrs. Martin, the house was filled with soot. They called out the Pamplin Fire Department to put out the fire.

Mr. Eugene Sears and Mr. Lester Sears attended the funeral of Mrs. Lillian Glenn Gilliam in Roanoke on Friday, December 15. Mrs. Gilliam, a former Hixburger, passed away on Wednesday.

Mrs. Rob Martin was taken to Virginia Baptist Hospital on Saturday evening, December 16, for observation.

The sick are improving. Mrs. Rena Glover was brought home from Virginia Baptist Hospital on Tuesday, Dec. 12. Her cousin, Mrs. Lucy Glover, is taking care of her. Also on Tuesday, Estelle Covington, who underwent surgery at Lynchburg General Hospital on December 7, came home. She is getting along nicely.
